RINGING THE NEW YEAR 2011 IN LONDON by: SGT Christopher Guyer

Single Soldiers from the Schweinfurt and Bamberg community join forces to go on an adventure to place of Queens, Fish, and Chips. Yes I am talking about London, England. We left on Thursday from Schweinfurt at 1800 for a 12 hr double-decker bus ride to London. We arrive at the ferry early in the morning to cross the English Channel and dock at the White cliffs of Dover. Went we arrive in London our tour guide name Brad show us all of the great wonders of London like London's Eye, Big Ben, Buckingham Palace and ate lunch at Hard Rock Café. We arrive to our hotel and unpack our bag we made met new people from London. It's great when you can have a conversation from another country and have no language barriers. My friends and I hit the underground which is what the subways are call in England and Enjoy the Night life of London.

The next day was the last day of 2010, New Years Eve. The tour guide took us to see the Stonehenge which were unbelievable and just drew me in. Windsor Castle was next this place has much history and royalty it was crazy from all the art, weapons, and structure. We hop back on the bus to get ready for the big night. We went to the bridge where you could see London's Eye light up and heard Big Ben ring in the New Year. We smile and took pictures of how lucky we were to be in London with new friends.

Start of a New Year with sleeping in late and eating a huge English breakfast. This day was a free day for all the soldiers. My friend I went to see the musical Wicked. Must see musical if you're a Wizard of OZ fan.

Then after the musical we walk the streets of London ate some Fish and chips and enjoy the street life of London. We went back to the Hotel pack our bags and relax our feet for tomorrow we had to end our journey of London.

We jump back on the bus to drive on the ferry to arrive back in Schweinfurt Safe and Sound on January 02 2011. This was my last trip to take with great people of B.O.S.S Schweinfurt. What I enjoy about the trip was the people I met, all the places I saw, and the food I ate. I didn't enjoy the pound being twice as much as a dollar. So if you get to chance to travel see what your local B.O.S.S. Rep has for you, or give an idea that you would like to go. You never know until you try.

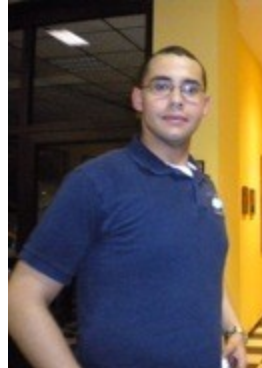

“So if you get the chance to travel, see what your local B.O.S.S. Rep has... You never know until you try.” -SGT Guyer

“BOSS works for the single and unaccompanied soldiers, and we need their support to keep this great program alive.”

-SPC Evans
BOSS President

MEET YOUR UNIT BOSS REP: SPC Evans (BOSS President)

NAME:
SPC Thomas Earl Evans Jr
UNIT:
Rear Detachment 1st BN,
77th Field Artillery
HOME TOWN: Bigelow, Arkansas

What made you want to get involved with BOSS?

Initially, it was like any other Additional Duty; I was told and I executed. My first meeting with Silvia Joiner made me feel otherwise. I immediately fell in love with the program, its message and its purpose and wanted to do as much as I could to make the program not only succeed, but exceed the standard.

So, you're the BOSS President. How did that happen and What does that mean ... what do you do?

My first meeting I was inducted at the BOSS Garrison Vice President, afterward I used www.armyonesource.com's Volunteer Management Information System (VMIS) to formally volunteer myself for the presidency, and my BOSS peers at the time agreed and a Garrison level Additional Duty Memorandum was written and signed. As Garrison BOSS President I make sure that all Single Soldier issues are maintained, tracked and reported as well as reporting all this to the Garrison Commander and CSM, as well as coordinating, participating, and facilitating Installation-level BOSS events.

How long have you been a part of BOSS?

December 2009 was my first BOSS meeting.

Why should soldiers in the community be involved with BOSS?

BOSS works for the single and unaccompanied soldiers, and we need their support to keep this great program alive. Without support, we can't do the great things like the Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners, or even have opened the new Warrior Zone on Ledward Barracks. Single Soldiers have opportunities here in Schweinfurt to go places most Americans have to pay an arm and a leg for, so full advantage should be taken. Giving back to the community should happen no matter where you call home, and here is no different, we offer opportunities for soldiers to pass on their skills to the future generations, as well as be a role model for teenagers in the JROTC program. As much as BOSS can do for the single soldier, participation is all that is asked for in return, and I think that's a sweet deal!

What is your favorite BOSS memory?

The IMCOM Europe BOSS Conference in Heidelberg, 10-11 May 2010. It was so much fun to meet with BOSS Presidents of other Garrisons, with more experience than myself, to learn from them, make connections, network, and build a foundation for us to do USAREUR level BOSS Events like the trip to Camp Darby in Pisa, Italy in July. Which we hope to do again and again.

How can the soldiers in your unit reach you if they have a BOSS related question?

Any Soldier of any Unit can reach me through my E-Mail, CTEEvans@gmail.com, my Cell phone 015224802964, or the Warrior Zone, at DSN 354-6081.

ASK BOSS?

What's on your mind?

What stories have you heard that you're not sure are true?

What concerns do you have, as a Single Soldier, would you like to see answered?

That's what this section is all about. We are asking you, the single soldier and the geographical bachelor, to write to your unit BOSS Reps about your questions and concerns. Let us know what types of events and/or activities you like to see more or less of. Voice your thoughts and concerns and see if some of the other single soldiers in community agree.

Now, I'd like to mention that "ASK BOSS" is the working name for this column and we're open to suggestions for a permanent title. Feel free to give us your ideas.

The Grill Sergeant is Coming...

Is your work schedule such that you cannot always make it to the DFAC in time?

Are you tired of dealing with the sometimes high cost of delivery and take out-food?

Are there occasions where you need something quick and filling but you're tired of the usual processed and package fare from the shoppette?

If you want to learn quick and easy ways to prep your food in the comfort of your barracks room then sign up for The Grill Sergeant! Your BOSS Reps are coming together to teach you ways to fill your belly without emptying your wallet or resorting to junk food.

Our first event will be on March 13th and we hope have more in the near future. But each class has limited slots so be sure to sign NO LATER THAN March 6th. For information please contact your unit BOSS Representative, The Warrior Zone, or Finney Recreation Center.

Do you have your own barracks recipes? If so, submit them to your unit's BOSS Rep for publication.
