Schweinfurt’s support system: Outstanding

Story and photo by Eva Bergmann

Spc. Candace Chism of the LPMC shows Spc. Matthew Darden, his “accomplishments” at the latest blood drive in Schweinfurt, April 27.

On this very successful event, Schweinfurt blood donors saved up to 342 lives of service members and their families, donating a total of 114 pints of blood. An impressive amount, which covers more than a third of the monthly need of the Armed Services Blood Bank Center Europe to supply all of EUCOM and AFRICOM. A clearly outstanding achievement, according to Mike Peacock, Blood Donor Recruiter.

Reduce energy consumption

There's something to be learned from our host nation neighbors. In energy consumption, the average American uses the equivalent of 7,885.9 kilograms of oil per year. The average German uses 4,187 kilograms per year.
