Kids' Camp builds character by faith

Story and photo by Eva Bergmann

The Kids' Character Camp is a Christian faith-based community program sponsored by Ledward Chapel in partnership with CYSS, SAC and Youth Sports. It's designed to build spiritual maturity and character in young children, by teaching Christian values.

Chaplain (Maj.) Kevin Forrester emphasized the importance of such a program, especially for kids.

"Too often we see children that don't have any kind of faith upbringing also lacking strong clear moral upbringing. The two run hand in hand." Forrester explained.

Energy conservation:
it's a policy

Did you know that using less hot water will preserve energy and save on costs? Read more tips in USAG Schweinfurt Policy Memorandum 3-24 in the policies section of the home page or click here.

SAFE Summer

Summer is a very dangerous time of year for the Army. Water safety is important because drowning is historically a leading cause of off-duty accidental deaths.

The Safety office wants to prepare you for a fun yet safe summer. That's why they've provided a list of authorized swimming areas in the area. Click here.
